SANDS OF PLEASURE

Eight-Year-Old Gelding Beats Big Field in Feature at New Orleans.

SLIPPERY ELM SECOND
Record Crowd at Track Despite Inclement Weather—Bron-

man Loses License.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—Sands of Pleasure, an eight-year-old unsexed son of Fair Play and Golden Sands, running in the colors of J. M. Good and ridden by E. Pool, acted as Santa Claus for the long shot players to-day when he took the Christmas Handicap at Jefferson Park from Slippery Elm, Tippley Wicket and seven of the best representatives of handicap class in local training.

Sands of Pleasure was the neglected outsider in the speculation, with 25 and 40 to 1 about his winning chance. He had to be much the best to win. There was general confusion attending the start, for while Slippery Elm was responsible. He bolted toward the inner rail and piled several contenders into a muddled mass while he went off to a good lead. Woodtrap displaced Slippery Elm at the post, but he was the first to turn and led to the final turn. After Slippery Elm had reassured command there Pool sent Sands of Pleasure up on an extreme outside to take the first position to take command in the final stretch and win going away by a length. Slippery Elm proved gamier than Tippley, which fired badly under his top weight in the final furlong.

The mile and a sixteenth was run in 1:46 1/5, one of the best races of the season, and within two-fifths of a second of the track record. Slippery Elm won the fixture last year.

The latter's jockey, Morris, was suspended for three days for spilling the start.

Record Crowd Present.

The attendance created a new record for the course, despite the chilly dull weather, and there was much discomfort.

The stewards ordered trainer T. F. Brownman's license withdrawn after he had failed to provide a satisfactory explanation for the several showings made by the colt Pimlico during the meeting. The entries of all horses either directly or indirectly in his care are included in the ruling. Pimlico had performed poorly until last Saturday, when he suddenly awakened and started the form students as well as the stewards. E. Loubat, owner of Pimlico, later turned him over to W. A. Burtchell to train.

The form students and holiday makers fared poorly. Only two outstanding and one even close were successful.

The apprentice Scobie, here with the Montfort Jones stable, took the riding honors with Fluzey and Forest Queen.

Gregory's handling of Lady Lillian in the sixth race, which went to the heavily backed High Gear, roused criticism because of its laxity.

Jockey Weiner was suspended for cutting across the field soon after the start of the eighth race, which was won by the favorite, which was won by the favorite, which was won by the favorite.
